Whig Nominations.

For Governor,
WILLIAM W. HOPPIN,
of Providence.
For Lieut. Governor,
JOHN J. REYNOLDS,
of North Kingstown.
For Secretary of State,
WILLIAM R. WATSON,
of Providence.
For Attorney General,
CHRISTOPHER ROBINSON, of Cumberland.
For General Treasurer,
SAMUEL B. VERNON, of Newport.

The Know Nothings have swept New Hampshire, electing all the State officers and Congressmen; this will be awful news to President Pierce. A friend at our elbow suggests that the President ought to veto the vote of the people.

By desire of Dr. Wood we state that all the members of his late class are requested to meet this evening, at the usual place, at 7 1-4 o'clock, precisely.

The Supreme Court Adjourned its session of 97 days in Washington on the 10th inst. Seventy-eight cases were disposed of.

Of the sixteen officers appointed for the new regiments, ten are from the South, six from the North. This, for the President, is very favorable to the North.

In the past ten years, nine sloops of twenty guns each, and four frigates and two schooners of ten guns each, have by casualty or decay been removed from the effective force of the United States Navy; not a single vessel has been built to replace them.

We learn by Telegraph that the Pacific arrived at New York yesterday morning, at 9 o'clock. Lord Raglan has resigned, and Sevastopol is not taken.

At the election in Marblehead, it was voted that the agency stock of liquors belonging to the town, be distributed equally among the legal voters; and that the casks, measures, tins, and other utensils of the agency be sold at auction.

THE VALUE OF FREEDOM.—John Adams concludes a letter of April 25th, 1777, thus: "Posterity, you will never know how much it has cost the present generation to preserve your freedom. I hope you will make a good use of it. If you do not, I shall repent in Heaven that I have ever taken half the pains to procure it."

The story is told that ex-U. S. Senator Clements, of Alabama, and Alvarado Hunter, are to command an expedition for the conquest of the republic of Ecuador, while the New York Herald advocates the forcible annexation of Mexico and Cuba. It is astonishing that such a know nothing journal as the Herald should be so fierce to annex all the Catholics that can be found in Cuba and Mexico. It is, however, as consistent as the same paper's abuse and laudation of Mr. Soule.

A bill has been introduced in the New York assembly prohibiting the payment of any money to any school wherein any particular creed or doctrine, peculiar to any sect or denomination, shall be taught; and providing that in every school supported in whole or in part by the public money, the exercises shall be daily opened by the reading of a chapter in the Bible, without note or comment.

There are now 507 convicts in the State Prison, at Charlestown, being the largest number ever within the walls. There are no women, as prisoners, in the institution.

The Reciprocity Treaty.—The proclamation of the President of the United States declaring the Reciprocity Treaty with Great Britain to be in full effect, will be issued as soon as the repeal of a certain British statute of 1819 in relation to the fisheries shall be officially made known to this government. The statute has been repealed, but the official notice of it has not yet been received by the British minister here.

The number of convicts at present within the walls of the State Prison at Auburn, N. Y., is 747.

A CHANCE FOR THE MEN.—The American Phrenological Journal devotes one of its columns to correspondence between persons having matrimonial yearning, but who wish to discuss certain preliminary questions on neutral ground. In the number for March, occurs two entries that may interest some of our single-hearted readers:

No. 64.—Am 28 years of age, neither handsome or a "singing angel," but understand the music of the pudding-slice. Am in no hurry about marrying; but think I should like to find my partner as soon as 31. Am 6 feet 4 inches in height, and must be mated phrenologically and spiritually, or not at all. Should wish one who could do without tea, coffee, pork, beef, mutton and feather-beds; a practical anti-slavery man, anti-tobacco, and I care not if anti-razor—in short, one who acts upon principle rather than policy. Age anywhere between my own and 40.

A written description of the above can be seen at our office. We will warrant her to be just what she appears to be. Her greatest fault is too great willingness to devote herself to the interests of others.—Ed.

No. 73.—I am tall, well-formed, healthy, cheerful, affectionate, industrious, economical; believe the Bible an inspired volume; read the papers; think for myself; have faith in the people—little in their rulers—none in the Pope, Jesuits or Allopapthas. I take the Water-Cure and Phrenological Journal, and take every opportunity to inculcate their doctrines.

I would like an intelligent Christian husband; between 34 and 64 years of age; of correct physiological and hygienic habits; with a soul attuned to love and philanthropy, and capable of sympathizing with my tastes.

For name and address, apply to Fowlers and Wells. ANNA.

—N. Y. Post.

A correspondent of the Savannah Georgian, who recently visited Havana, states that a conspiracy was no doubt formed in the island a short time since with the object of assisting and cooperating with the invasionists. Many of the most distinguished citizens participated, and large sums of money were sent to the United States. But the conspirators were betrayed by one of their number, and hence the recent arrests. It is said that there are at least three hundred persons now in custody. Among those named are Don Pinto, heretofore an intimate friend of the captain general, and Senor Cintuna distinguished lawyer. Many Creoles who had enlisted in the volunteers had been diarmed and ordered to quit the island at twenty-four hours' notice. The greatest excitement still pervaded and spies were abroad in all directions.

Bristol Custom House.—In the civil and diplomatic appropriation bill, which has just been published in the Washington Union, making upwards of twelve columns of that paper, we find the following item:

At Bristol, R. I., for the accommodation of the custom house and post office, a building of brick, with fire proof floors, constructed of iron beams and brick work, iron roof, shutters, etc., twenty-five feet by thirty, and twenty-five feet high, to cost not more than twelve thousand five hundred dollars.

Kansas Emigration.—The Springfield Republican says the Kansas meeting in that city on Tuesday at which the Hampton County Colony was formed, was unexpectedly full, and much interest and enthusiasm was manifested. It adds:

"We were amazed with an elegant plan of the city about to be established in Kansas by our colony, beautifully laid out with squares and parks with a river running by just in the right position, and surrounded by farms embracing a township of four square miles. It was an admirable plan, and much more likely to be realized than many of the cities on paper at the West, than have been longer in existence. Success to Hampton in Kansas."

A large independent party passed through Springfield for Kansas on Tuesday. A New Hampshire party is forming at Nashua. Several large parties will be sent immediately by an association in Oberlin, Ohio.

Grand Democratic Demonstration.—At a grand demonstration of the Democracy of New York city on Wednesday evening at Tammany Hall, eleven speakers were simultaneously absent on account of indisposition! Senator Stuart, of Michigan, who will not resign, though requested by the Legislature so to do, warned the meeting to beware of politicians! Judge Hall, of Iowa, said all the Jeffersonian principles of the party had been thrown overboard, and hoped this meeting would prove "a love feast." The meeting resolved that it was time for the Democracy of New York to impose a check upon the West Indian aggressions of Great Britain and France!

This completes the cabinet of curiosities, and is certainly a crusher to end with.

I have no more pleasure, says Johnson, in hearing a man attempting to leap over a ditch and tumbling into it.

BY TELEGRAPH.

CONCORD, March 13.
New Hampshire Election.—The vote of Concord is for Baker, Democrat, 774; Metcalf, Know Nothing, 1,094; Bell, Whig 130; scattering, 53. Ten Know Nothing representatives are chosen in Concord, with the assistance of the Whigs and Free Soilers. Manchester gives Baker, 671; Metcalf, 1,915; Bell, 113; Fowler, 29, and sends 14 Know Nothing Representatives. Some thirty towns in Rockingham, Stafford and Hillsboro' counties, show just about the same relative vote for Governor, and with only two exceptions elect K. N. Representatives.

These votes indicate that Sam has swept New Hampshire, nearly as clean as he did Massachusetts, electing Governor, Legislature, members of Congress, and all. For members of Congress there were only two tickets in the field in each district, the Democratic and the opposition, and the latter are believed to be elected in all of the 3 districts. The same remark applies also to the State officers in most of the districts.

A NAUTICAL INCIDENT.—The New York Spirit of the Times is responsible for the following:

"During our recent war with Mexico it was found necessary to call on the marines and sailors, serving in the Pacific Squadron, to serve on shore, and a large number of sailors were accordingly placed under command of Gen. Kearney. During one of their 'shore fights,' as Jack termed it, a body of 'Greasers' were discovered firing from a large stone barn, and it being necessary to get to its rear, in order to effect an entrance, the marine officer in command of the sailors gave the order, 'By the right flank file left, forward!' The blue-jackets, in a high state of excitement, 'tried it on,' but couldn't do it; in fact, they got all in a heap," as a spectator describes it; when Lieut. St.—w—y, of the Navy, seeing some of his aids in confusion, came running up with, 'What in h—l's out?' 'I can't get your men to obey me,' answers Mr. Marine. 'Give the order,' says S. 'and I'll see they do.' Accordingly, 'By the right flank, &c.' was yelled out, but worse and worse was poor Jack's puzzle, when S. sang out, 'D—n it, Sir, that's no way to talk to my men. Luff, you'd—d lubbers, and wealthier that barn!' You had better believe it was done in no time."

FISH HATCHING IN FRANCE.—The French Minister of Agriculture, Commerce and Public Works, paid a visit a few days since to the College of France, to examine the apparatus for hatching fish established by M. Coste. He found two hundred and fifty thousand recently hatched fish, one hundred and fifty thousand of which had only just been brought up from the establishment at Hamougnon. All this large number was conveyed to Paris at the same time, and without a perceptible loss. It consists of a common trout, trout from the lakes, salmon from the Rhine, and trout from the Swiss lakes.

Massachusetts Judges are becoming very troublesome to the people. Not satisfied with the attempt to remove Judge Loring, they have circulated this petition which is numerously signed. At least, the Boston Times says so, but perhaps it is only meant to ridicule the movement against Loring, who is certainly no more censurable than Chief Justice Shaw, who maintains the constitutionality of the law for the enforcing of which the former is threatened with removal. The petition is as follows:

Whereas according to Theodore Parker who has seen what he describes, Lemuel Shaw, Chief Justice of the Supreme Judicial Court of Massachusetts, has a spot on his heart, which is written all over in large letters, black as "outer darkness," the word "Remorse!"—therefore, we, legal voters of Massachusetts, respectfully request your Honorable Body to suspend the said Lemuel until that spot be wiped out!

A Wolf Killed.—Early in the morning of the 2d instant Pardon T. and Harry Bushnell of Walsfield started for Montpelier and had proceeded but a short distance when they discovered a wolf. The people of the town were immediately notified and on a quick rally after considerable sharp practice the varmint was killed. A procession numbering 187 men was formed and escorted the body of the distinguished stranger to the village, where the body (bounty included) was sold at auction for $24 and a committee was appointed to distribute the $24 among the poor of the town. After this excellent work the crowd gave three cheers for the successful hunters, and three groans for those who have no faith in wolves in Walsfield and would not go to the fight.—Montpelier, Vt., Journal.

A provision, practically applying the Maine Law to St. Louis county, was smuggled through the Missouri Legislature, about the last day of the session, "cloaked in a bill to build a brick house"—upon which one of editors' remarks that it might better have been styled "a bill to take bricks out of a man's hut."

SLEEP.—There is no better description given of the approach of sleep than in one of Leigh Hunt's papers: "It is a delicious movement certainly, that of being nestled in bed and feeling you shall drop gently to sleep! The good is to come, not past; the limbs have just tired enough to render the remaining in one position delightful, the labor of the day is done. A gentle failure of the consciousness disengages itself more and more, with slow and hushing degrees, like a mother detaching her hand from that of her sleeping babe, the mind seems to have a balmy lid closing over it like the eye—its closed. The mysterious spirit has taken its airy flight."

A coxcomb, talking of the transmigration of souls, said—"In the time of Moses, I have no doubt I was the golden calf." "Very likely," replied a lady, "time has robbed you of nothing but the gilding."
